MILWAUKEE
BALLET | SUMMER
INTENSIVE

2024 Residence Hall
Parental Permission Slip

The Milwaukee Ballet Summer Intensive Program at the MSOE Viets Tower incorporates a check-in/check-out procedure, which allows chaperoned (under the age of 18 as of the first day of the program) students to be accounted for at all times. Prior Resident Assistant approval is required for all check-out destinations. Milwaukee Ballet's policy permit the students to leave the dormitory with specific family friends or relatives, only if pre-arranged.

PARENTAL PERMISSION SLIP REQUIREMENTS:

- Any chaperoned (under 18) student leaving Viets Tower with someone other than their own parents or another chaperoned student, must have a parent/guardian permission slip submitted to the Housing Manager.
- Permission slips must be on file at least 48 hours in advance of the student departure.
- The Housing Manager will phone the parent/guardian to verify information.
- Before leaving, the students must introduce the person(s) who will be accompanying them for the activity and check-out with the Resident Assistant on duty.
- Each outing requires a permission slip. Open permission slips for multiple outings with the same person are not accepted.

This form is required for permission and should be sent to Milwaukee Ballet to the Housing Manager at housingmanager@milwaukeeballet.org, starting June 15th. Alternative forms or messages cannot be accepted.
