STUDENT DIVISION | AGES 7-14

Classical ballet study with professional teachers. With each level, students achieve stronger technique, confidence, artistry, and grace. New students age 9+ with previous ballet experience, please contact us at 414-902-2100 for placement.

BALLET I

Those who have completed Pre-Ballet or are ages 7-9 and new to ballet will enjoy an introductory course to our classical ballet curriculum.

BALLET II/III

For students who have completed Ballet I or have previous ballet experience.

BOYS CLASS*

Boys ages 7-12 who are new to ballet or continuing study, improve strength and flexibility specific to technique used by men. May be taken alone or with other classes.

BOYS WORKSHOP*

A unique and focused week for boys ages 7-12. Daily ballet and variations (choreography from famous ballet stories). Students will film their accomplishments during the final class.

BALLET IV

For students who have completed Ballet III. Students continue to build on exercises and vocabulary learned in Ballet III.

BALLET V/PRE-POINTE

Classes meet Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Students who will start pointe in the fall focus on preparing for pointe work, but pointe shoes are not worn. 3-week and 6-week sessions available.

BALLET VI/VII

Classes meet Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Ballet, pointe, variations, and character dance. Students must have at least 1-2 full years of pointe experience.

ACADEMY MAINTENANCE CLASS

Monday through Thursday. Advanced ballet and pointe for students who have at least 3 years of serious pointe experience and boys of that equivalent level, or who are registered for Milwaukee Ballet's 5-week Pre-Professional Summer Intensive Program.

 Discounts not applicable to boys classes due to the reduced pricing offered for these classes.*
